

A Family Weekend in Malibu Itinerary

Friday

Arrive Friday evening at your leisure to The Malibu Beach Inn.

Check in and get settled. Be sure to ask if the complimentary yoga class is on for the next morning. If you have not yet had dinner, try The Carbon Beach Club on the back deck.

Relax and unwind with a walk on the beach.

Get kids settled in bed and order a drink for you and your mate to enjoy on your private balcony.

Saturday

Awaken at your leisure.

8am order room service breakfast to eat out on your private balcony.

9am one parent to yoga, other parent takes kids for walk on beach for a fun seashore hunt. If no yoga available, take a family walk on the beach together hunting for unique rocks and shells!

10am head back to room, get good walking shoes on and head over to the Adamson House for a tour.

You have 3 options:

a. Take the Malibu Trolley – the front desk should have the schedule. Both the Malibu Beach Inn and The Adamson House are regular stops for the Trolley. It is free to ride as many times as you like.

b. Walk! It is about a 20 minute walk along the same side of the PCH. There is a big sidewalk, but it is the PCH. We have done it, but please use your own judgement as to what is best for your family!

c. Drive! Parking is limited in front of the Adamson House and very hard to get, the cost for the lot is $14. Generally you will be directed to park at The Malibu Lagoon for $12 and walk over (it is slightly closer than the Beach Inn).

11am tour The Adamson House and spend some time on the grounds.

12:30pm walk up the PCH one block and cross at the stop light crosswalk over to The Malibu Country Mart. Have lunch – we recommend Café Habana – a bit of shopping and let the kids burn off some energy on the playground there.

2pm head back to the Inn, get changed for a family Stand Up Paddle Board lesson.

The logo for 'Malibu Mama Loves' features the word 'Malibu' in a teal, cursive font. To its right are three stars: a pink one above, a teal one to the right, and a pink one below. Below 'Malibu' is the phrase 'MAMA LOVES' in a bold, pink, sans-serif font.

Malibu MAMA LOVES

3pm walk over to the Malibu Surf Shack for your family SUP lesson!

5:30pm back to room, dress for dinner, family cocktails out on the balcony.

6:30pm head down to the beach to walk over to the Malibu Farm on the Pier for dinner. You can also dine at the Carbon Beach Club, then take a relaxing, family walk on the beach to the Pier.

Head back at your leisure, get kids in bed and order some yummys for you and your mate to enjoy on the private balcony overlooking the ocean!

Sunday

Awaken at your leisure! Get dressed and packed up.

Enjoy breakfast at The Carbon Beach Club out on the back deck of the Inn.

Check out.

Head over to The Malibu Farmers Market (open 10-3) to get some food for the beach – and some great things for your week ahead. This Market is located behind the Malibu Country Mart.

Park over at the Malibu Lagoon and enjoy a picnic/beach day on the famous Surfrider Beach.

Head home when you are ready.
